

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of failing to serve the public interest. Instead they are simply serving the interest of a political party, and even worse it is the political party currently in power.

I hope you understand how damaging this is the notion of democracy and freedom of speech. If the concept of "equal time" is dead in the country, then it is imperative to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. And it shows why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Thank you
